

Humorously Speaking # 3 - Make them laugh, 5-7 min

(3 monkeys = deafness, blindness, silence)

Shut up ! (pronounced as "T'es toi"/"You are you")

Yes ? ... I am me

This is not a speech with Humor, but to speak with Mood.

(Deafness: take himself for a god)

I have a toothache ... my leg hurts ... Isabelle, what to do? ...

It is a mistake to call many gods if there is mixing calls

Mesopotamia was reading the stars, by astrology, sheep livers, by the diviner, the demons, by exorcism.

There were temples everywhere ... and even one hidden god,

Being a slave of one God who tells me good? Too easy !

Do you know the first ever written dialogue?

It is between the woman and the serpent; this is the first sin.

You have a free will and hell for several years ... depending on the variety of churches

"Christian Hell is fire.

Pagan hell is fire.

Mohammedan hell is fire.

Hindu hell is flames.

To believe the religions, God is born ... a roaster. "

thank you Victor Hugo

(Blindness: catch and throw)

Choosing is not easy

For example: the scientist Laplace published his Celestial mechanics, and Napoleon is furious and convenes him.

"- You give the laws of all creation and you do not speak one time of God's intervention!

- Sire, I had no need of that hypothesis. "

We created civilization.

She needs geese: it chuckles, whistles, babble.

Geese save Rome, they have their temple "Moneta" = " who warns ", giving us the currency.

Finally human rules! Those of Pushkin:

Everything is mine said the gold. Everything is mine said the steel.

I will buy all said gold. I will take everything said steel.

Take money = to wave a 50 € note is deserved / undeserved according to his banker (Greece)

Take a look bad = it is undeserved criticism, needing revenge (Grenoble)

(Silence: deceive)

Act as a great Manager

A black Cat is in the room, it is evil and hard to catch

A black Cat is in the room, in the dark, it is a little harder to catch

With a blindfold, only a little harder.

It is not in the room, we will get the cat.

It does not take (the cat)

Shut up !

Here's an Emperor mask, it is divine because deaf, warrior because blind, elected because silent
Who saw the "March of the emperors"?

Victor Hugo: Your gaits are shady, and your steps are tortuous; fright,
And not love, this is the basis of your law ... "

Red ! You all scared of the red !
Shut up !

Sparkle of humor your speech into 3 parts; controversy with humor; break by joke; focus by joke

Titre : "T'es toi" ("You're you", pronounced as "Shut up" in French)

Evaluation : Florence Date : 13/10/2013

- Is the beginning story related to the subject?

I had trouble putting me in the mood of the speech, but it was the context

- Did conclusion emphasize the essential story?

Absolutely

-Did jokes highlight arguments

The jokes relax the atmosphere. Lots of laughs that showed they well illustrate the point.

- Did jokes avoid monotony of complex parts; effectiveness of jokes?

Yes and it was necessary because the speech was complex

- There were transition between jokes and smooth body?

Yes, absolutely

- Was the speaker comfortable and confident in jokes and stories?

He seemed to be quite at ease

- Did the jokes use context, break falls, keywords

I have not seen enough to answer

- Were the jokes and stories appropriate ; were you amused?

Yes: I had fun (like everyone else)
